Events at the Fort Worth Zoo

ADOPT A WING MAN THIS VALENTINE'S DAY! THROUGH FEB. 14

Who can't use a little assistance when expressing your endless love – whether to a mate, a date or a cherished child. By adopting one of their wing men, you not only get a great Valentine's Day gift, but you also contribute to the care and feeding of their animals all year long. You'll receive a stuffed animal, photo, adoption certificate and more. And don't miss the annual Valentine's Dinner at the Zoo on Feb. 12 or Feb. 13. Space is limited, so don't wait to reserve your spot. A romantic evening that's anything but ordinary – dinner at the Zoo!

SPRING BREAK CAMP: MARCH 14 TO 18

Explore the Zoo at Spring Break Camp! Spring Break Camp is for first through sixth grade students. Activities include crafts, games, animal presentations and a daily trip into the Zoo. Campers must pack a lunch each day and snacks will be provided.

For more information on zoo events, visit: www.fortworthzoo.org.

North Texas Irish Festival at Fair Park

MARCH 4, 5 & 6

Claiming the title of "Largest Celtic Event in the U.S. Southwest," the North Texas Irish Festival is a three-day celebration featuring music, folk dancers, storytelling and educational programs. Staged each year by the Southwest Celtic Music Association, the North Texas Irish Festival was first held in the early 1980s at a local lounge, but the event has grown into the large, family-friendly event it is today. It is one of the largest events presented at Fair Park with a weekend full of Irish music, dance, storytellers and other live performances spread across ten stages.
