May Events Around Town

El Fuerte Taco Festival

SATURDAY, MAY 7 AT PANTHER ISLAND

The Fort Worth Taco Festival is a celebration of Cinco De Mayo, Mexican Culture, and the kaleidoscopic Latin influence on Fort Worth. For many, Mexican cuisine was their first connection to the culture. And there's not a more identifiable and enduring symbol of that bond than the taco. Taco Fest will feature grub from dozens of area restaurants and food trucks in a celebrity judged competition, in addition to live music featuring Latin Express, theatrical performances, vendors, mariachis and enough beer to drown the Western hemisphere.

The goal of the Fort Worth Taco Festival is to bring people of different backgrounds and ethnicities closer together by promoting, celebrating, and honoring the cross-section of our cultures. The taco is more than just a tasty treat—it's a way to remind us of the many things we have in common. Tickets can be purchased online on the Ticketing page, www.fwtacofest.eventbrite.com. General Admission includes entry into the event at 12 pm, unlimited food samples from Taco vendors from 12-5:30 pm, and beer and margaritas available to purchase.
