Dallas Arboretum Garden Gigs

Bask in the magic of live music at twilight with Garden Gigs, returning to the Dallas Arboretum for its second season this July. Each Friday event features a curated selection of local artists and musicians performing intimate sets in picturesque settings throughout the 66-acre grounds.

Open to the general public, Garden Gigs run from 7:30 to 9:30 pm, offering both fabulous views of Dallas at sunset, and late access to the garden on the shores of White Rock Lake. Guests can bring their own picnics and beverages, or take advantage of delicious offerings from some of DFW's most popular food trucks. It's the perfect excursion to kick-off your local summer weekend, or show your out-of-town guests those big and bright stars at night. Parking is included in the tickets, available for $10 per person, $8 for members.

This year's band lineup includes:

July 1: Jenna Clark, Kirk Thurmond, and The Hazardous Dukes

July 8: Troy Cartwright and The Ray Johnston Band

July 15: John Tipton and Rania Khoury

July 22: Devin Leigh, Matt Tedder, and John Lefler & Camille Cortinas

July 29: Charley Crockett, Ole G, and Zach Nytomt

Tickets for the 2016 season of Garden Gigs at the Dallas Arboretum are available online at: <http://www.dallasarboretum.org/visit/seasonal-festivals-events/garden-gigs>

Hawaiian Falls Waterpark

Since 2003, when the first water park was built, Hawaiian Falls has continued to grow; there are now six locations throughout North, Central, and South Texas, all of which are safe for kids of all ages, clean for worry-free adventure, and fun for creating lasting family memories. Whether you and your family are visiting Texas or live right here in the Lone Star State, Hawaiian Falls is the place to be. With multiple Dallas / Fort Worth area water park locations including Garland, The Colony, Mansfield and Roanoke, there's a location near you no matter what part of North Texas you're in. If you need a place to relax while the kids have their summer fun in the sun or you're looking for family-friendly aquatic adventure, Hawaiian Falls is the Texas water park destination for your family this summer.

Mesquite Championship Rodeo

1818 Rodeo Dr. Mesquite, TX

Rodeo is every Saturday night, July 2 - October 1. Arena hosts regional and national competitions of bull riding and barrel racing. Best known as home to the Mesquite Championship Rodeo, the facility is just 15 minutes east of downtown Dallas. Constructed in 1986, the arena has been host to presidents such as Ronald Reagan and George Bush. Equipped with 61 Luxury Suites, the 8-Second Club, a BBQ Pavilion, 2 brand new HD Video Boards, and an entertainment area. The arena and club can be rented out for private and public events. Concessions and catering is done in-house through Platinum Catering.

The Mesquite Championship Rodeo has been nominated multiple times by the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association (PRCA) for Rodeo of the Year. The rodeo dirt surface was also recognized as "best dirt" by the PRCA and can be compacted to form a more concrete surface to hold events like MMA fights, motocross races, monster trucks and concerts. This air-conditioned facility truly is more than just a rodeo arena.
