Greek Food Festival September 23-25

Spirited Music & Dance

The renowned New York-based Greek band Thymios will set the festival tone for spirited music and dance (and plate smashing!). Expect the pace to be lively and the party to be spontaneous! Keep an eye on center stage where the Festival Dancers—all parishioners of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church—bring dance traditions from throughout Greece to life. Go ahead! Follow the beat onto the dance floor and be inspired by your inner Zorba. OPA!

The festival supports Holy Trinity's ministries, community outreach, and youth programs.

Visit the Children's Area for all the fun designed especially for kids — sand art and crafts, caricature artists, face painting, and more. The Agora Marketplace also features a number of delights for young Festival-goers.

Basile will be performing live at the Greek Food Festival of Dallas on Sunday, September 25, 2016 at 3 pm.
