Events Around Town

Texas Discovery Gardens

Texas Discovery Gardens is a 7.5 acre organic botanic garden featuring native and adapted plants. Inside, their two-story Rosine Smith Sammons Butterfly House and Insectarium transports you to a tropical rainforest, complete with hundreds of free-flying butterflies.

Located in Dallas' historic Fair Park, Texas Discovery Gardens is a year-round organically maintained urban oasis filled with natural wonders. Family festivals, free admission days, and their extensive (and growing) EarthKeepers® student education program introduce children and adults to natural outdoor learning experiences. <http://texasdiscoverygardens.org>

Safari Nights at the Dallas Zoo

SATURDAY NIGHTS THROUGH JULY 15

Cricket chirps aren't the only sounds you'll hear on Saturday nights at the zoo this summer. Original artists and tribute bands will fill the park with music during their Safari Nights. Bring blankets or lawn chairs to enjoy the show. Activities start at 5 pm. Bands begin at 7 pm. <http://www.dallaszoo.com>

>> Concierge has discount tickets for the Dallas Zoo.

Summer Staycation

School's out for the summer. You've booked a trip or two away and organized summer camps for the kids, but it's still not quite enough. This is why having a few staycations up your sleeve comes in handy. So kick schedules out the window, be spontaneous, and book a last-minute getaway that's just around the corner. Your kids will thank you for being the coolest parent around.

GAYLORD TEXAN RESORT AND CONVENTION CENTER

Cool off from the heat in Gaylord Texan's 10-acre water park, Paradise Springs. There's a lazy river, a lagoon pool, and a 27-foot-tall waterslide as well as a multilevel water play structure. Tots have their own toddler pool away from chaos of the big kids. When water play is done, take a stroll under the 4.5-acre Lone Star Atrium. The indoor lush gardens, walkways, and restaurants create a mini city wrapped under air-conditioned comfort. There are 10 food and beverage options, from the Texas-inspired Old Hickory Steakhouse to casual Italian at Zeppole Coastal with courtyard seating. Family program highlights include panning for gold with Gaylord's Prospector Pete, rounding up bandits at Hank's Outlaw Scavenger Hunt, and Mommy & Me manicures at Relâche Spa.

Free family activities include Friday night fireworks overlooking Lake Grapevine, a Saturday night Glow Party and Wild West Show under the Lone Star Atrium, and nightly live music. <http://gaylordtexan.com>

THE HILTON ANATOLE

The game-changer for many families looking for a Dallas-Fort Worth resort arrived last summer with the launch of JadeWaters, the 3-acre water experience at the Hilton Anatole in Dallas. The resort pool complex offers a lazy river, two 180-foot water slides, kids' water features, a swim-up bar in the adult pool, pool-side spa treatments, and luxury cabanas.

New this year is the Fun Pass, which can be purchased daily or for a full weekend. It gives you access to kids activities at Geppetto's Marionette, s'mores parties, and craft workshops. The kids activities at JadeWaters run every Friday to Sunday, and the resort pool is open only to hotel guests. <http://www.hiltonanatolehotel.com>

FOUR SEASONS DALLAS RESORT AND CLUB LAS COLINAS

Two words—Kids Club. Four Seasons Dallas has perfected the art of keeping children happy with organized activities like scavenger hunts, cooking classes, and yoga, all of which is available via the Kids For All Seasons (KFAS) program. Additionally, kids can take tennis and golf clinics or sign up for all-day camps. This gives parents an opportunity to try an anti-gravity aerial yoga lesson, surf the TPC green on a Golfboard, or book a couples spa treatment. Our pro-tip is to book an unhurried dinner at LAW Restaurant on Friday or Saturday (from June to September), and drop the kids off at Kids Night In at KFAS, where they will be fed and entertained.

There are also plenty of ways to spend quality time together, including s'mores nights, dive-in movies at the pool, and a game of bocce or billiards at the newly opened Outlaw Taproom. <http://www.fourseasons.com/dallas>
