Canal Fest

JUNE 9, 2 PM TO 10 PM
AT LAS COLINAS URBAN CENTER

501 E. Las Colinas Blvd.
Irving, TX 75039

Canal Fest 2018 is a celebration of world cultures, featuring dance, music, art and food representative of cultures from around the world. Three performance stages provide an immersive and interactive exploration of culture. Each stage showcases one or more continents, while the area surrounding each stage features food, activities, children's crafts, cultural displays and vendors. Explore artifacts from a variety of world cultures presented by the Museum of International Cultures. Photo stations will be placed around the festival, and attendees are encouraged to dress in clothing that represents their own heritage or culture. Admission and activities are free.

Attendees are encouraged to bring blankets and lawn chairs, as seating is not provided for the performance stages. An ATM is available near the food court. Alcohol may not be brought into or removed from the event grounds. Outside food is permitted. Leashed, well-behaved dogs are permitted on event grounds, but may be prohibited from certain exhibit areas. The handler is required to control and clean after dogs at all times. Please refrain from smoking within the event grounds

Traditionally set along the Mandalay Canal in the Las Colinas Urban Center, this popular festival has been temporarily relocated a few blocks south due to road construction. Now located along the shores of Lake Carolyn, Canal Fest offers a beautiful view of the entertainment district and close proximity to dining, dancing, hotels and more.
