Cottonwood Art Festival

OCTOBER 6 & 7 AT COTTONWOOD PARK IN RICHARDSON

Cottonwood isn't just about the art. The festival also features local bands who perform the best in rock, country, jazz, blues, swing and folk. Be sure to check out the Lakeside Courtyard, where you can sit in the shade by the lake and relax while you enjoy the music. Food and spirits are also available in the courtyard. The beautiful atmosphere and ambience of the courtyard is created and designed by Donal McKinney, owner of Green Sculptor. Whether you're shopping for art, listening to music, enjoying the outdoors, or making art of your own, Cottonwood has something for you. Free event and free parking. www.cottonwoodartfestival.com

Huffhines Art Trails

OCTOBER 27-28 AT HUFFHINES PARK IN RICHARDSON

This year, the 42nd Huffhines Art Trails will showcase the creative handiwork of more than 160 artists and craftsman including 35 new artists, providing shoppers more to peruse, more to choose and more to buy. You can listen to live music all day from local cover bands in the Craft Beer Garden, plus there's plenty of shaded seating to just sit and relax with a cold drink and enjoy the music and the people. And if the music makes you feel like jumping up, and grabbing a dance partner, the Festival installs a temporary dance floor each year for just that purpose. Local craft brews, favorite beers, a variety of wines and some delicious festival food choices are available here but you'll find lots more tasty festival foods, tables and covered seating at the Food Court along the park's south entrance and along the trails - just follow your nose.

For kids, there's a brand NEW Scavenger Hunt that'll have them searching all over the Festival trails for a list of items to find and collect before heading back to the Festival Headquarters to claim their prize. So kids, don't forget to take your picture with "Hayman," the 15 foot scarecrow who towers over his wheelbarrow of giant pumpkins while his permanent hand-wave welcomes all festivalgoers to the trails: Huffhines' own version of Big Tex.

Huffhines Art Trails is the perfect place to find those unique holiday gifts for family, friends, teachers, co-workers or maybe, just you. Festival entrance and parking are FREE. Event Hours: Saturday, 10 am-6 pm; Sunday, 10 am-5 pm. www.huffhinesarttrails.com

Texas Country Reporter Festival

OCTOBER 27 IN WAXAHACHIE

Join Kelli and Bob Phillips, hosts of the weekly TV show, Texas Country Reporter, for the 23rd Annual Texas Country Reporter Festival. This one-day arts and music festival will take place around the historic courthouse square in downtown Waxahachie on Saturday, October 27, 2018 from 9 am to 7 pm. Admission is FREE.

Surrounding the Waxahachie courthouse square will be more than 250 booths set up with artists, craftspeople, food, live entertainment and some of the people who have been featured on Texas Country Reporter over the years.

The headliner this year will be Shenandoah 30th Anniversary Tour featuring original lead singer Marty Raybon. Hit songs include: "Two Dozen Roses," "Church on Cumberland Road," "Next to You Next to Me," "I Want to Be Loved Like That," "Ghost in this House," "Moon Over Georgia," "Sunday in the South," "Mama Knows," and "If Bubba Can Dance (I Can Too)."

For more information on the festival, call the Waxahachie Convention & Visitors Bureau at 469-309-4040 or visit www.waxahachiecvb.com.
