Dallas Arboretum Events

EGG-stravaganza: Easter Weekend, April 12-14 & 19-21

Come enjoy two weekends full of egg-citing, egg-themed programs. Stop by the Plant Lab for special egg-squisite egg dying using plant-based dyes. This year, an additional eggs-tra egg-citing weekend has been added, and the plant lab is doing egg-speriments EVERY hour on the hour from 11 am to 3 pm. Be sure to reserve a lab seat online before they are gone. Appropriate for ages 5 years and up. Pre-registration required. Visit: www.dallasarboretum.org

Easter Weekend Celebration, April 19-21

Celebrate family time all weekend long in the garden. Don your best outfits and hats, and come out to the garden for photos, music, face painting by A Fresh Perspective, Country Critters Petting Zoo, games and more. On Good Friday, Eddie Coker returns for his annual concert on the Martin Rutchik Concert Stage and Lawn at 11 am and 2 pm, sponsored by DallasChild. On Saturday, they attempt to break the Guinness Book of World Records for the Largest Bunny Hop in Jonsson Color Garden with the Easter Bunny leading the way at noon – see website for specific details. Both Saturday and Sunday, Chris Ivey Photography will be back to provide family photos available to purchase with live bunnies.

>> Concierge Discount Ticket: $11
(Ticket does not include concert.)

Six Flags Over Texas

PREPARE FOR TEXAS-SIZED THRILLS ON EL DIABLO

Six Flags Over Texas, the Thrill Capital of Texas, has hatched a “devilish” new plan for the world’s largest loop coaster opening this spring. Towering a staggering 100 feet tall, El Diablo will boast a fiery red and orange theme and send riders back and forth, propelling them head over heels through a series of 360 revolutions. The coaster changes direction halfway through the ride cycle leaving riders suspended upside down at the top of the loop for even more intense thrills. The ride will be located in the Spain section of the park.
