Dallas Arboretum Offers Special $2 Admission for August Dollar Days

An Additional $2 for Admittance to the Rory Meyers Children's Adventure Garden

The drawn out sun-drenched days of summer bring in August Dollar Days. Named one of the "50 destinations everyone wants to visit in the U.S. this summer," by Business Insider, the Dallas Arboretum offers $2 general garden admission, $5 for parking, and $2 admission into the Rory Meyers Children's Adventure Garden for the month of August. The many floral beds are bursting with impatiens, lobelias, begonias, salvia, marigolds, zinnias, caladiums, lantana, cannas, vinca and pentas.

Alan Walne, Dallas Arboretum board chairman, said, "We look forward to record attendance this August, and with general garden admission being $2 per person, everyone can come enjoy the beautiful gardens at an affordable price."

Dollar Days food includes $1 sodas, juice and frozen pops, $2 root beer floats and hot dogs, and $4 brownie sundaes. Now through October 15, a highlight of Summer at the Arboretum is, "Celebrate the Children," an art exhibition designed and created by Gary Lee Price, displayed throughout the gardens. Ranging from two feet to seven feet, these beautiful, handcrafted bronze sculptures of children create the perfect photo opportunity for visitors. The exhibition is presented by Reliant and supported by the Dallas Tourism Public Improvement District.

August Dollar Day tickets are available for purchase only at the gate. Parking is available for a discounted $5 per vehicle. For more information on August Dollar Days and other daily activities, call 214.515.6500 or visit www.dallasarboretum.org/events-activities/summer-at-the-arboretum/.
