State Fair of Texas: Through October 20

Celebrated far and wide by those young and old, creativity is a gift that draws inspiration from everyday life. It is stitched in the fabric of Texas history, proudly illustrating our Lone Star State culture and the many ways Texans express their ingenuity. From painting to cooking, designing to inventing, and everything in between, the State Fair of Texas is excited to highlight Texan artistry through its 2019 theme, "CELEBRATING TEXAS CREATIVITY."

"This year's theme celebrates something that plays an ongoing role throughout every corner of the Fair," says Mitchell Glieber, State Fair of Texas President. "Creativity produces everything you see on the fairgrounds each year – new exhibits and shows, ribbon-winning entries in Creative Arts, and one-of-a-kind Fair food. Outside of Fair season, it influences growth in our year-round initiatives, like the hydroponic growing systems added in Big Tex Urban Farms, creating workshops and capacity-building programming with local organizations, and fundraising events supporting the Big Tex Scholarship Program."

Cottonwood Art Festival

OCTOBER 5 & 6 AT COTTONWOOD
PARK IN RICHARDSON

There's an art to having fun! From its humble beginnings in 1969, the Cottonwood Art Festival has developed into one of the most prestigious fine art festivals in the United States. Local artists staged their first Festival at the scenic Cottonwood Park in Richardson, Texas. It was all tie-dye, bell-bottoms and braids back then where the artists laid down blankets and set up easels with the hopes of selling a few pieces of art. Since that first weekend nearly five decades later, Cottonwood has established itself as signature art event, become a tradition in the community and the home to the finest artists in the country for the first weekend October.

Hours: Saturday, 10 am-7 pm &
Sunday, 10 am-5 pm

Admission to Cottonwood Art Festival is FREE; however some activities in the ArtStop Children's area require a nominal fee. For more information, visit www.cottonwoodartfestival.com.

Autumn at the Arboretum Fall Festival Highlights "It's The Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown" Theme

► Festival runs through October 31

For the 14th year, Autumn at the Arboretum, presented by Rogers-O'Brien, highlights the nationally acclaimed Pumpkin Village featuring pumpkin houses and creative displays utilizing more than 90,000 pumpkins, gourds and squash. The festival runs through October 31. With the theme, "It's The Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown," the Dallas Arboretum's favorite fall festival features a 'Great Pumpkin' covered in marigolds; topiary characters such as Linus, Sally and Franklin looking through the pumpkin patch; Snoopy and Woodstock topiaries are atop his dog house; Lucy gives garden advice at her advice booth; and Schroeder stands near his giant topiary piano. Guests can snap selfies with Charlie Brown, Peppermint Patty, and Marcie behind the iconic brick wall, get lost with Pig Pen in the hay bale maze, and see the Peanuts Gang at their gourd decorated school house for their autumn carnival. Named one of "The Best Pumpkin Festivals to Visit This Fall," by Martha Stewart Living Magazine, the festival features breathtaking colors of fall including 150,000 autumn flowers accented by pumpkins, gourds and squash.
