Frisco RoughRiders 2020

The new season in Frisco begins Thursday, April 16 after the Riders begin 2020 with a week on the road. Opening Day is part of an 11-game homestand to begin the season in Frisco, giving fans plenty of opportunities to welcome the 18th season of RoughRiders baseball.

Next season offers plenty of chances to see the Riders on the weekend, with 33 of the 70 home dates falling on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Other special occasions include an early Fourth of July celebration on Friday, July 3 and a Labor Day game to close out the regular season.

First pitch for RoughRiders games will remain at 7:05 pm, with the following exceptions: Sunday games in April and May will begin at 4:05 pm, with June through September Sunday games beginning at 6:05 pm. The Riders will host five Education Day games in 2020; April 20, April 22, and May 6 (first pitch at 11:05 am); June 9 and September 2 will begin at 12:05 pm. The regular season finale on Monday, September 7 will have a special start time of 4:05 pm.

>> Dallas Concierge will have discount tickets for the Roughriders again this year!

Dallas Blooms at the Arboretum

Sounds of Spring

Music and nature come to life at the Dallas Arboretum with more than 100 varieties of spring bulbs and over 500,000 blooms. Experience one of the country's most colorful floral displays and celebrate the joy of music in "Sounds of Spring." Six majestic topiaries adorn the garden, each depicting a different musical instrument, including a harp, bass, guitar and saxophone, as well as two topiary musicians. One is playing the violin, the other is playing the piano. Come for the flowers and stay for the fun during Dallas Blooms.

North Texas Irish Festival

March 6-8 at Fair Park

The music, the dancing, the cultural talent, education and family-friendly atmosphere is all found at the North Texas Irish Festival, which returns March 6-8, 2020, to Dallas's Fair Park. One of the largest Irish festivals in the U.S., the North Texas Irish Festival celebrates the amazing music, dance, and cultural talent in the beautiful, rich tradition of Irish and other Celtic influences. Tens of thousands of fans (Irish and Irish-for-a-day alike!) will converge upon Fair Park to enjoy top musicians and dancers from around the world and a number of cultural presentations on 13 different stages. Music, dancing, whiskey tastings, horse displays, Celtic storytelling, animal rescue groups, Shepherd's pie, Irish stew, dozens of activities for kids, child-friendly entertainment and chef demonstrations will comprise a weekend of fun for fans of all ages.

The North Texas Irish Festival is presented by the Southwest Celtic Music Association, an all-volunteer, non-profit association based in Dallas that fosters the great tradition of Irish culture in North Texas.

Back by popular demand is the North Texas Irish Festival Fun Run on Saturday, March 7, 8-11 am, in historic Fair Park. This family-friendly 5K fun run is perfect for runners or walkers of any age or ability, and also dogs! All registered runners will receive a T-shirt, a medal, one ticket to the North Texas Irish Festival, and two beers after the run (if they are of legal drinking age). <https://www.ntif.org>

Hours: Friday, 6-11 pm; Saturday, 10:30 am-11:30 pm; Sunday, 11:30 am-7:30 pm
