The Dallas Zoo

The Dallas Zoo is open, but due to the rising number of cases in Dallas, it's recently scaled back to its "initial level" of reopening activities. That means many of the indoor exhibits and high-traffic areas are closed. Now, you'll need to buy a ticket for a specific time frame, wear a mask, and follow new traffic flows that allow for social distancing.

All of the details of the reopening (like what's open and what's closed) can be found on their website: www.dallaszoo.com

The Dallas Arboretum & Fort Worth Botanic Garden

The Dallas Arboretum and Fort Worth Botanic Garden are both decently safe options for a weekend outing since they are open-air, outdoor venues. Still, you'll want to wear a mask and avoid any crowds you might encounter while strolling through.

The Dallas Arboretum has closed the Children's Adventure Garden for the time being. The Fort Worth Botanic Garden takes temperatures and checks for symptoms before allowing anyone in, and they are requiring visitors to buy time-stamped tickets in order to control the flow of traffic.

Find out more about visiting the gardens at www.dallasarboretum.org and www.fwb.org.

Crayola Experience Plano

Crayola Experience Plano is where the magic of Crayola comes to life! With 60,000 square feet of attractions, Crayola Experience is Texas' most colorful family destination for interactive, creative play!

Families typically spend 3-4 hours exploring their 25 hands-on attractions. Go on a wonderful, whimsical adventure with unique experiences, such as:

- Star in your very own coloring page
- Name and wrap your very own Crayola crayon
- Embark on a 4-D coloring adventure
- Learn how crayons are made in a live manufacturing show
- And so much more!

The Crayola Experience Plano in the Willow Bend Mall is open year-round, specializing in colorful birthday parties, group outings, educational field trips, and special events. Plan your trip today! Group discounts and annual passes are available.

Required for a visit: Time Entry, Clear bags only, Temperature checks, Face coverings required & cashless transactions

For tickets and what you should know before you go, visit: <https://www.crayolaexperience.com/plano>.

For those of you who are unable or not yet ready to come back, they invite you to take advantage of the At Home with Crayola Experience crafts for creative activities to do with your children. Available at <https://www.crayolaexperience.com/creativity-at-home>.

August

GET OUT OF THE HOUSE FOR A GOOD TIME WITHOUT HAVING TO GET OUT OF YOUR CAR.

Drive-in and drive-thru experiences are beginning to pop up across the city as venues think of creative ways to give patrons a good time while practicing social distancing guidelines. From attractions and performances to classic carhop diners, here is a list of some drive-thru experiences so far.

Rhythm and ReVERB Pull-Up Edition at Heroes Lounge (Every first Sunday of the month)

Known as the best Sunday social (distancing) event in Dallas, Rhythm and ReVERB promises visitors a unique gathering experience and good vibrations while upholding safety guidelines. Enjoy drumming by Erykah Badu's Percussionist Frank Moka, open mic performances, live DJ and food and drinks delivered directly to your car. This event occurs every first Sunday of the month, so mark your calendar and plan to pull-up!

Dairy-ette in East Dallas

Dairy-ette is an old-school carhop that serves up classic hamburgers, fries and their legendary housemade root beer. Its retro '50s-themed digs and straightforward menu makes for a classic drive-in experience. Make it a fun time with the family by dressing up in swing dresses and pleated trousers and throw your own sock hop in the parking lot.

Great American Hero in Oak Lawn

This Dallas staple sandwich shop has been serving delicious deli-style subs since 1974. When you find yourself craving carbs and a classic dining experience, head to Great American Hero and enjoy its drive-thru service. This shop's brightly colored exterior and Insta-worthy mural also serves as cool ambiance from your car.

Keller's Drive-In in Northwest Dallas

Keller's Drive-In has been serving up the classic carhop experience for more than 50 years. With two locations in Dallas, this burger joint offers old-fashioned hamburgers on a delicious poppy seed bun with all the fixin's. Enjoy your meal under the covered parking spaces and travel back in time with jams from the jukebox.

Klyde Warren Park Movies in the Park

From blockbusters to animated favorites, from musicals to comedies, you won't want to miss any of these fun, free, family-friendly flicks in their August 2020 lineup brought to you by AT&T Discovery District. Grab a space on the lawn, enjoy a Relish or food truck picnic and let the cinematic fun begin. All movie screens provided by Ultimate Outdoor Entertainment. Time: 8:30-10:40 pm

- August 8 - Crazy Rich Asians
- August 15 - The Blind Side
- August 22 - Selena

Kimbell Art Museum

The Kimbell Art Museum in Fort Worth has reopened with some new adjustments, including closing the cafe and a few of its galleries to enforce social distancing measures. Fortunately, the museum has extended its exhibit Flesh and Blood: Italian Masterpieces from the Capodimonte Museum, giving North Texans another chance to see rarely traveled works by Titian, El Greco, Raphael, and other masters.
