Autumn at the Arboretum Fall Festival

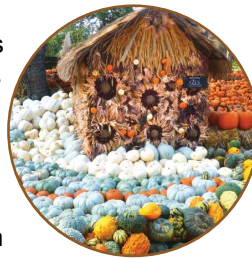

Festival runs through November 1

Autumn at the Arboretum, presented by Reliant, highlights the nationally acclaimed Pumpkin Village featuring four 20-foot-tall decorated pumpkin houses and creative displays fashioned from more than 90,000 pumpkins, gourds and squash. With the theme, "The Art of the Pumpkin," the Dallas Arboretum's popular festival has been named one of the "Best Fall Festivals to Celebrate the Season" by Country Living Magazine. The event opened on September 19 and runs through November 1.

Autumn at the Arboretum features breathtaking colors of fall including 150,000 autumn flowers accented by pumpkins, gourds and squash from Floydada, Texas.

The festival features the return of the popular Mommy and Me Mondays and Tiny Tot Tuesdays, presented by Kimberly-Clark, a hay bale maze, a pumpkin patch with pumpkins for purchase, music and more.

Alan Walne, Dallas Arboretum's board chairman, said, "We invite the community to the Dallas Arboretum to experience a familiar place, including Pumpkin Village, which has been a tradition for 15 years. The garden is a wonderful place to social distance, get some fresh air outdoors and take plenty of photos."

Holiday Cheer at the Gaylord Texan Resort

Hold that parka. The Gaylord Texan Resort in Grapevine has announced that ICE!, its popular sub-zero holiday attraction, will not take place this year. Despite the cancellation of ICE!, there will still be plenty of holiday cheer at Gaylord Texan during a set of Christmas events that run November 13 through January 3, 2021 and include snow tubing, ice skating, gingerbread decorating, stories with Mrs. Claus and photo friendly holiday décor placed throughout the resort's 125 acres.

The resort is also adding some new attractions for 2020 including an interactive walk-through exhibit that celebrates favorite holiday films. The new "I Love Christmas Movies" pop-up will feature iconic scenes and memorabilia from 13 holiday movies including National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation, Elf, The Polar Express, A Christmas Story and others. Tickets for the various programs go on sale October 1 at christmas.gaylordhotels.com.

On Being Human at Valley House Gallery

6616 Spring Valley Rd, Dallas, TX 75254
www.valleyhouse.com

Striking bronze sculptures. Beautiful oil-on-canvas paintings. Intense oil and charcoal portraits. "On Being Human" at Valley House Gallery is simply stunning. Check out this new exhibit from now through October 31!

"These last months have reminded us of the importance of our basic humanity and the inherent value of others," said Cheryl and Kevin Vogel in a recent press release. "After isolating, we felt a need to be surrounded by people, hence this invitational exhibition about people seen through the artist's eye." You can see the exhibit from 10 am-5 pm, Monday-Saturday through October 31. Masks are required; no need to make a reservation. This exhibition is held in memory of Lu Ann Barrow (1934-2020). You can also scroll through the exhibition online and purchase pieces to take home with you.

October

While the heat hasn't given way to fall just yet, many people are still looking for ways to get out of the house with their families in a way that's safe, relatively cool, and appropriately distanced from others. Check out these options for some inspiration.

Texas Discovery Gardens

Venture to Fair Park for a nature lover's adventure across Texas Discovery Gardens' 7.5 acre-organically maintained oasis. In addition to the outdoor playground, little ones might enjoy some of the indoor activities, including a daily butterfly release, Snakes of Texas House, and art gallery. Picnic tables are onsite at the gardens, so bring snacks from home and dine al fresco. <https://txdg.org>

Klyde Warren Park

Bring some lawn chairs, your favorite movie buff, and catch a Saturday night Movie in the Park. Though the Children's Park is currently closed, Klyde Warren Park is a nice brunch or lunch option, featuring unique food truck experiences such as Yummy Pizza, Serious Salads, Liberation Coffee or Chiave's Italian Street Food. The park offers free fitness classes each week as well as a dog park for your furry friends. Enjoy the glorious views of the Dallas skyline. klydewarrenpark.org

- SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3 - The Wizard of Oz
- SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24 - Ferris Bueller's Day Off
- SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14 - The Lego Movie
- SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21 - Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets
- SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19 - Elf

White Rock Lake

For the athletic types, White Rock's nine-mile hike and bike trail is perfect for a family day outdoors and offers plenty of space to spread out. Take in the stunning lakefront views with a to-go pizza from nearby Cane Rosso or juicy barbeque from Smoky Rose. Or do some bird-watching with loved ones at sunset. Snap plenty of pictures, too!

Bishop Arts District

You can easily make an afternoon of strolling the sidewalks of one of the city's trendiest neighborhoods, the Bishop Arts District. If you must pop inside for a few minutes, visit Lula B's to find unique gifts or {neighborhood} to shop handmade goodies. Grab some small plates to-go from Oddfellows and schedule curbside pick-up at Bishop Cider Co. This walkable area makes buying local and supporting a vibrant community so easy!

Lakeside Park

This lush outdoor enclave is nestled in Highland Park and offers lovely walking paths fit for a quaint "family day." With benches around the park, you could stop to read, draw naturescapes or sip some coffee and nibble a pastry from Highland Park Village's Royal Blue Grocery. Fishing is permitted, as are photo ops with the Lakeside Park's giant teddy bear statues, which are sure to get the kids' attention.

Fort Worth Alliance Air Show: October 17 & 18

Alliance Air Productions has announced that the 30th Anniversary of the Bell Fort Worth Alliance Air Show will be a drive-in experience. The show is set for Oct. 17 and 18 at Fort Worth Alliance Airport and will feature the U.S. Air Force Thunderbirds. According to Alliance Air Productions, a limited number of parking tickets will be made available for purchase at AllianceAirShow.com. Parking tickets will not be sold onsite. Alliance Air Productions said social distancing standards and additional safety protocols will be in place at the event.

Dallas arts and cultural facilities have been closed since mid-March. Now, eight diverse museums are reopening, and they've worked hard to ensure their patrons and staff can safely visit during this pandemic. Each has COVID-19 safety protocols such as mask requirements and social distancing, and some may have limited hours, timed openings and capacity restrictions. Be sure to visit each museum's website for dates, times and details on all they're doing to keep you safe. And remember, as we embark once again on arts and culture experiences, let's do so with compassion, patience and respect.

Guests must wear a mask to enter Her Majesty's castle. Contactless temperature screening will take place before entering the castle.

- Please stay at a sword's length from your fellow Royals.
- To create a safe and comfortable environment, each Castle will follow local state guidelines for limited guest capacity.
- Once inside the Grand Ceremonial Arena and ready for feasting, they will ensure a minimum of 6 feet between parties for extra elbow room and rigorous cheering!
- Guests will be seated only with people booked under the same reservation. Please include all guests when booking or contact them at orderhelp@medievaltimes.com to add guests to an existing reservation.
- Protect your kingdom by keeping your family together. They've placed markers throughout Her Majesty's halls to remind you about distancing while you explore the Castle.
