Frisco RoughRiders Baseball 2021 Season

The Frisco RoughRiders announced their schedule in full today for the 2021 season, which begins on Tuesday, May 4 at home against the Midland RockHounds. The opening 12-game homestand includes 6 games against the RockHounds to kick things off and after an off-day on Monday, May 10, the Riders welcome in the Corpus Christi Hooks for a 6-game series. While the 2021 season may look and feel a little different, there is some familiarity returning in the form of the RoughRiders continued affiliation as the Texas Rangers' Double-A organization.

"This is not only an exciting day for the Frisco RoughRiders, but also for all of minor league baseball and its fans," said Victor Rojas, RoughRiders President & General Manager. "The last time we hosted RoughRiders baseball on our diamond was in September 2019 and today's schedule announcement not only gives us a target date to look forward to, but also brings a smile to our face thinking about welcoming back our fans in a safe manner. The sights and smells are now right around the corner."

The 2021 season offers plenty of chances to see the Riders on the weekend, with 30 of the 60 home dates falling on Friday, Saturday and Sunday including a Fourth of July celebration on Sunday, July 4. For more information, visit RidersBaseball.com.
