Broadway Returns to Music Hall

Despite a delay to the start of their season, Dallas Summer Musicals has amazing news to share—they have rescheduled 10 Broadway shows to play Dallas over the course of an entire year, beginning with Wicked in August (pictured, below). They are also thrilled to announce the return of Hamilton, and the addition of Disney's Frozen to complete the Season.

Want to be there for the return to the stage? The only way to guarantee your seats is to buy a 6-show subscription package now (which you can make a 7-show package by adding Hamilton at a later date). DSM hopes you will join them later this year for this spectacular roster of shows.

Once you purchase a 6-show season package, you will have priority access later this spring to secure your same package seats for Hamilton. Season packages are on sale now. Become a subscriber now and use their 3 installment payment plan to guarantee your seats.

America the Beautiful

Dallas Blooms at The Arboretum:

Now through April 11

Named by Southern Living as one of "The Best Places to See Stunning Spring Blooms Across the South," the Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Garden presents Dallas Blooms, the largest annual floral festival in the Southwest. Presented by IBERIABANK/First Horizon, the festival runs through April 11. With the theme "America the Beautiful," the spring festival showcases an explosion of color from 100 varieties of spring bulbs and more than 500,000 spring-blooming blossoms, thousands of azaleas and hundreds of Japanese cherry trees. Each week, Dallas Blooms focuses on one of the six regions in the United States with food, music, flowers and special events.

APRIL

Texas Bluebonnet Festival

Named the Official Bluebonnet City of Texas, Ennis celebrates the state flower with their annual Ennis Bluebonnet Trails Festival.

This free two-day event, located in beautiful Historic Downtown Ennis, includes live music, arts and crafts, children's activities and bluebonnet souvenirs. You can also take a ride through the scenic countryside with the Bluebonnet Trails Map provided by event sponsor, the Ennis Garden Club.

Celebrating 60 PLUS years of Ennis Bluebonnet Trails, the Ennis Bluebonnet Festival honors the state flower with a three day festival beginning Friday evening the 3rd weekend* of April. The festival features live music, food and arts & crafts vendors, and children's activities. (*date will be changed if the 3rd weekend falls on Easter.) Designated the Official Texas Bluebonnet Trail the Official Bluebonnet City of Texas by the 1997 State Legislature, Ennis showcases over 40 miles of mapped driving bluebonnet trails sponsored by the Ennis Garden Club. The oldest such trails known in the state, tens of thousands of visitors make the trip to Ennis to view this wonderful wildflower show every spring. Because these are wildflowers to the area, trails and viewing vary from year to year. Begin checking with the Ennis CVB online or by calling 972-878-4748 for the best projected viewing date. For more information visit: www.bluebonnettrail.org.
