Holiday at the Arboretum

presented by Reliant

Opens on November 9
and runs through December 31 with many spectacular elements:

- The Pauline and Austin Neuhoff Family Christmas Village with dozens of charming shops fashioned after a European Christmas Village. The 23-foot-tall German-built authentic Christmas Pyramid includes animation on every level returns along with the tavern for delicious food and drinks with a larger biergarten and performance area. The Christmas Village is wonderful during the day, but it's magical at night with lighted trees, shop owners passing out samples and live entertainment. Santa Claus even has his own house and a sleigh for photo opportunities.
- A stunningly decorated historic DeGolyer House featuring the Artistry of the Nativity
- A NEW Dazzling Musical Tree, a 50-foot-tall tree animated with more than 42,000 lights and merry holiday tunes.
- The 12 Day of Christmas, Victorian-style gazebos that represent each of The 12 Days of Christmas. These 25-foot-tall glass gazebos resemble an oversize music box with mannequins and animals that move along with music and lighting.

Van Gogh and the Olive Groves

"Van Gogh and the Olive Groves" is the very first exhibition dedicated to Vincent van Gogh's important olive grove series created between June and December 1889 during his stay at the asylum of Saint-Rémy-de-Provence. Reunited for the first time, the paintings reveal Van Gogh's passionate investigation of the expressive powers of color and line, and his choice of the olive groves as an evocative subject. Van Gogh and the Olive Groves highlights exciting new discoveries about the artist's techniques, materials, and palette that emerged from a collaborative conservation and scientific research project covering all fifteen paintings in the series.
