Taste Addison

June 3 – 4

Addison Circle Park

A North Texas legend since 1993, Taste Addison continues to rock out with delicious food and high-energy concerts. The region's original food and music festival was voted Best in DFW in 2021, and continues to deliver top-notch Addison eateries, national music artists, food and wine sampling experiences and activities for the whole family. When the festival returns June 3-4, 2022, it will again present an array of musical artists sure to please everyone.

Starting the party on the CBS 11 Main Stage on Friday night is the legendary Jamaican dancehall rapper and singer Sean Paul, best known for his chart-topping Billboard Hot 100 No. 1 singles, "Get Busy," "Temperature," "Baby Boy" (with Beyoncé) and "Cheap Thrills" (with Sia). Paul won the Grammy for Best Reggae Album in 2003 for Dutty Rock and has been nominated for another eight Grammys, most recently last year for his reggae album Live N Livin.

The following night, Stone Temple Pilots take over the stage. Coming to prominence with their 1992 debut album, Core, the alternative rock band was among the most successful groups of the decade, spawning singles including "Plush," "Creep" and "Interstate Love Song." The band won a Grammy for Best Hard Rock Performance in 1993 for "Plush." Also performing on Saturday are Living Colour, best known for 1988's "Cult of Personality," and Candlebox, whose "Far Behind" spent nearly a year on the Billboard charts in 1993.
