Dallas Bicycle Tours

Our tour is a 10 mile ride featuring one hill at a social pace & is for beginner to intermediate cyclists with some experience riding a bike. We do have the ability to customize the route depending on your needs & abilities.

We can rent you one of our own bicycles on request. These will be a mountain bike or a hybrid bike (these are the best types of bikes for Dallas streets). Cycling provides us a way to social distance & be outdoors. Equipment is sanitized between riders. We begin by fitting you on your rental & doing a safety check. You will want to bring your own, $, sunglasses, water & a small fanny-pack or mini backpack if you have items to carry.

The tour starts by going through Deep Ellum to the popular Deep Ellum Blues Wall as well as other murals. We will then head to the Trigger Fingers Wall followed by Fair Park. On the way back, we will wind through Downtown Dallas & stop at sites such as the AT&T Discovery District, Dealey Plaza, Dallas City Hall & Pioneer Plaza.

We conclude at Farmer's Market & have a beverage with an option to stop for beignets from Le Bon Temps along the way.

Photos will be taken along the way & a memory video compiled. There is a restroom on the route. To book a ride visit: <https://dallasbicycletours.com>.
