PNC Patio Sessions

PNC Patio Session concerts are FREE!

Hosted right outside the Center Café, the outdoor space offers live music, beverages – including wine and beer, barista drinks and light fare.

Customers can enjoy the arts scene with their drinks at Café tables and chairs and play free games including golf on our new Reliant Putting Green, corn hole, and other crowd favorites.

This setting is ideally situated for downtown professionals and residents, and anyone just looking to get outside and enjoy live music at happy hour.

Thursday, June 1, Taylor Pace

Taylor Pace is a singer/songwriting/instrumentalist specializing in Soul, Jazz and R&B. A super smooth vocalist and keyboardist extraordinaire, Taylor blends the worlds of soul, jazz and R&B seamlessly in his captivating live performances.

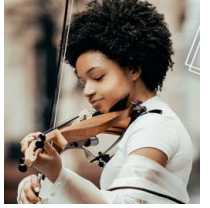

Thursday, June 8, DAMOYEE

Introducing a new era of DAMOYEE. Widely known by her angelic and ethereal sounds, the acclaimed multi-hyphenate re-emerges with a shocking persona that's every bit dark and gritty. Lyrically and musically, her new sound is cleverly crafted to be as rough and intense as it is calm and euphoric.

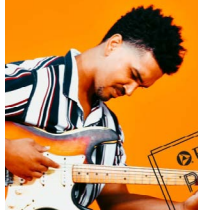

Thursday, June 15, Clover the Violinist

Clover The Violinist is an artist who's redefining the boundaries of classical music. With over two decades of musical expertise, Clover seamlessly blends the traditional sounds of the violin with a contemporary twist. Her innovative approach has made her a sought-after performer, gracing stages and captivating audiences across the US and beyond.

Thursday, June 22, Kane Vinson

Kane Vinson is a 27-year-old singer-songwriter from Dallas, Texas. He performs original music and covers popular songs with his acoustic guitar and soothing vocals. Kane incorporates instrumental looping and vocal processing into his performances to create layered and unique sounds for every show.

Thursday, June 29, DJ Ursa Minor

Ursa Minor is a black queer female DJ based in Texas who plays to the black girl in the room. She's worked with brands like Netflix, Revolt and Optimo, festivals such as Idapalooza, A3C, and SXSW, and has completed multiple tours for artists like Cupcake and Felly. Ursa is also the creator of Femme Friday – a monthly residency series that centers black women and femmes both in music selection and attendance, and features an all-female staff. She prides herself on making safe and inclusive places to reconnect and reinvent what a party should be for black women and femme identifying individuals – no matter where that party might be.

Dallasites101 6th Annual Rosé All Day Wine Walk

It's time to get bubbly as we celebrate National Rosé Wine Walk! Mark your calendars for June 10th from 12-5pm and start texting your crew, because we are hosting our annual Wine Walk along Greenville Ave!

We love any excuse to get dressed up and drink wine, and know y'all do too!! We've partnered with 10+ bars along Greenville Avenue for a lively wine walk. A highlight of the experience is seeing the neighborhood come alive with everyone dressed in pink and showing up for a good time!

JUST ROSÉ?! NO WAY

There will be a mix of rosé, wine, beer & cocktail specials...so even if you don't love rosé you still have a reason to join in on the fun!

Show up with your cork lovin' crew & check-in at the Four Day Weekend across from Truckyard bar, between 12-2pm to receive your wristband, souvenir item, and map. Your wristband will give you priority entry and access to specials at participating businesses, and the map will guide you on where to go and the exclusive specials to enjoy!

Dallas Arboretum

June 10th - 11th

Don't miss our 2nd annual Pride in Bloom on June 10-11. Our event will return with two full days of music, chef demos and local vendors. All partners are LGBTQ+ owned and operated, so support the community all weekend at the Dallas Arboretum!

Visit our Pride in Bloom page for updates, and, as always, you can also bring your own picnic and settle in to the Dallas Voice's Reader's Voice award winner for Best Public Space, for a day of celebrating with friends and family.

“Just for Fun” Days
