Uptown's Total Eclipse Party

Monday, April 8 12:00p - 3:00p

Join us for a special celebration in Griggs Park for the total solar eclipse! Buckle up for some celestial excitement! Picture this: a total solar eclipse is like the ultimate game of cosmic peek-a-boo. The moon swoops between the sun and our good old Earth, throwing shade like a pro and blocking out the sun's rays. The Perot Museum's got the scoop: when the moon only covers part of the sun, it's a partial solar eclipse. But when it's a total eclipse, oh boy, the moon steals the show by perfectly aligning with the sun and snatching away all its light. You go girl!

When this stellar showdown goes down, Earth gets in on the action. As our blue marble twirls through space, the moon's shadow takes a joy ride across the planet. They call this shadowy tour the "path of totality" – the VIP section where the full eclipse spectacle unfolds. And we have your front row seats reserved! Now, mark your calendars because the cosmic circus is coming to town! Food trucks will be available with food and beverages for purchase.
