The Dallas Cinco de Mayo -
It's history, it's tradition,
let's celebrate.

The Big Parade

Saturday, May 4

The Dallas Cinco de Mayo Parade is the biggest and longest-running parade in North Texas and is a tradition that brings together the community to celebrate Hispanic heritage. The Big Parade, as it is referred to, is one mile long and is located on historic Jefferson Blvd. - a vibrant Hispanic commercial zone and community. From the Welcome & Confetti Shoot Step-Off at 9 AM to the vibrant Parade, the Dallas Cinco de Mayo Parade showcases the best of Dallas. The Parade celebrity emcees announce and entertain from the Parade Stage where the much-anticipated Parade trophies are awarded, by the Parade Watch Bleachers. The result is pride and joy in celebrating history and traditions.

The Fiestas

The Dallas Cinco de Mayo has developed into a mile-long Fiesta with over 200 storefronts and anchor stores that offer a variety of Hispanic products, services, art centers, and theaters. The sights, sounds, and flavors guarantee a unique cultural experience with dining and shopping to enjoy.

The evening Fiesta will be held at a large parking lot and will be a block party. There will be a Main Stage with music and performances, a Kid Zone with activities, arts & crafts, games, rides, and food vendors.

Taste Addison

May 31 - June 2

Addison has an experience for every vibe at Taste Addison, the iconic festival that started in 1993. With a focus on the culinary arts, performing arts and visual arts this year, there is truly something for everyone. Food booths and trucks, international delicacies, a Sunday brunch and tasting area kick off the culinary experiences. Beer, wine and spirits will round out the culinary space to fill your cups! National, regional and community artists take to the stages (and spaces) for the performing arts. Art comes to life visually and adds to the shopping experience. Festivities for the kids will make it a weekend of family fun as well as a foodie experience for every palate. Taste Addison is a chance to discover what makes Addison the live-work-play capital of North Texas. The festival happens May 31-June 2. To purchase tickets visit: tasteaddisontexas.com.

Cottonwood Arts Festival

May 4 & 5

From its humble beginnings in 1969, the Cottonwood Art Festival has developed into one of the most prestigious fine art festivals in the United States. Local artists staged their first festival at the scenic Cottonwood Park in Richardson, Texas.

It was all tie-dye, bell-bottoms and braids back then where the artists laid down blankets and set up easels with the hopes of selling a few pieces of art. Since that first weekend nearly five decades later, Cottonwood has established itself as signature art event, become a tradition in the community and the home to the finest artists in the country for the first weekend of May, Saturday 10 a.m. to 7 pm Sunday 10 am to 5 pm. Admission to Cottonwood Art Festival is FREE, however some activities in the ArtStop Children's area require a nominal fee.
