October 31 – November 2

Friday, Oct 31, 11am-10pm

Saturday, Nov 1, 11am-10pm

Sunday, Nov 2, 11am-10pm

Rain or shine, the party goes on!

Welcome to the 69th Annual Greek Food Festival of Dallas! We are excited to welcome everyone to this year's Festival. A major thank you to ALL OF YOU — our greater Dallas/Fort Worth community. Your support of Greek Culture and our Orthodox faith has allowed this little event — which started out as a ladies' bazaar in 1955 — to reach its 69th year — THANK YOU — or as we say in Greek EFHARISTO!

If it is your first time here or your 69th, don't miss a thing! Come be inspired by our iconography in our church sanctuary. Learn more about our religious traditions by attending a lecture on Byzantine chanting and with a church tour. Visit our newly expanded religious bookstore in our main shopping center, the Agora. Visit our cultural center and learn about the history of Greece!

Enjoy the culinary delights that Greece is famous for! We are bringing back all your favorites this year — Gyro, Loukoumades, Feta Bites, Souvlaki, Greek Fries, and we are reintroducing Pastichio (Greek lasagna) to the menu. Come thirsty and visit our Taverna to drink Greek wine or try a Greek beer then get a Greek coffee or Frappe so you can keep going! You can't miss the Agora to shop like you do when you walk the streets in our beloved Greece. There we have an authentic Greek Grocery and so many imports, Jewelry, gifts and treats to browse and buy. The Greek Food Festival of Dallas is hosted by Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church, supporting outreach, ministries, and youth programs.

The 2025 State Fair of Texas,

“Texas Shines Bright”

Through Sunday, October 19

This year's theme is inspired by Big Tex's “larger than life persona,” according to a statement on the fair website. The 55-foot-tall cowboy reigns over the fair and its attendees every year, embodying Texas culture.

Big Tex has been the State Fair of Texas' ambassador since 1952. This year's commemorative art was captured by Texas native graphic designer and illustrator Silvia Skinner at The Matchbox Studio.

*Dallas Concierge will have discount tickets available on our website for the State Fair*

Spooky Halloween Fun

Junkyard Haunted House

Fabrication Yard

2700 Sylvan Ave Dallas, TX 75212

Every Friday, Saturday, & Sunday Night in October 8PM-12AM

The Junkyard Haunted House is a unique haunted house made from junk locally picked up by the JunkGuysDFW. This family business takes the time to build a very different haunted house than what DFW is used to. A new and different haunted house every year & the outside factor really adds to the spookiness of this haunted house. The Junkyard Haunted House is the cheapest haunted house in Dallas & Fort Worth at $25 per person.

*Our Fort Worth Location is also a great option at the Fort Worth Haunted House 2423 Chester Street, Fort Worth, TX also costing $25 per person. Free Parking at both locations!

Scarborough's Hollow Fall Fantasy Festival

debuts October 11

Each Saturday through November 15 at the Scarborough Faire site on FM66. The festival is created by Southwest Festivals, LLC producers of the Renaissance Festival. The company also produced Screams Halloween theme park but announced that Screams was closing after 28 years in Waxahachie.

Among the attractions are the Trickster's Trail of Leaping Lights light show, Masquerade of Mischief Fun House, which includes illusions, and Hollow's Hayride. For those craving a haunted attraction the festival will include Morwyn's Manor Haunted House. The festival will be open from 2 – 10pm each Saturday of the festival plus 5pm to midnight on Halloween.

Enjoy live entertainment, a pumpkin patch, artisan shoppes, petting zoo, a fun house and haunted house. Plus, interactive activities for all ages, seasonal fun, and a touch of spooky delight *Concierge will have access to tickets.

Harambee Festival October 5

Absolutely Free to the public!
This year's theme is "Harambee... It Still Takes a Village!"

Harambee Dallas' Watoto Village offers a vibrant and enriching alternative to traditional trick-or-treating for children under 13. This lively event, held during Halloween season, provides free treat bags to all young attendees, ensuring a delightful experience for everyone. Beyond the treats and costumes, Harambee Festival is a hub of education and culture, featuring art, music, interactive workshops, and a variety of vendors. Concerts add to the festive atmosphere, while community resources and networking opportunities foster connections among attendees. The event also encourages civic engagement with early voting facilities available on-site. This celebration is not just a fun outing but a meaningful opportunity for families to connect, learn, and enjoy the rich tapestry of community life.

Chefs For Farmers! Food & Wine Festival! November 1-2

Chefs For Farmers, Dallas' biggest food and wine festival returns Saturday, November 1st & Sunday, November 2nd at Old City Park! Celebrate the city's vibrant culinary scene with 80+ rockstar chefs and local farms serving up mouthwatering bites alongside unlimited pours of wine, beer, and cocktails. From endless tastings to all-day entertainment, it's a weekend designed for food lovers to indulge and explore. More than a culinary event, Chefs for Farmers is a celebration with a purpose: a portion of every ticket supports The Seed Foundation and New Friends, New Life.est. (Must be 21+ to enjoy).

Dallas Arboretum's Iconic Pumpkin Festival Goes Global with ¡Mundo México!

An immersive cultural transformation featuring 110,000 gourds, contemporary Mexican artists, and heritage programming The Pumpkin Village reimagines seven iconic regions of Mexico through spectacular gourd artistry, highlighted by monumental sculptures from renowned Oaxacan artists Jacobo and María Ángeles.

"With ¡Mundo México!, we're expanding what seasonal programming can be — combining art, culture and education in ways that resonate across generations," said Sabina Carr, president and CEO of the Dallas Arboretum. "This is a celebration rooted in community, beauty and connection — values that define who we are as a public garden."

"This year's theme is sure to resonate and delight with a special nod to Mexican culture, just in time for Hispanic Heritage Month.

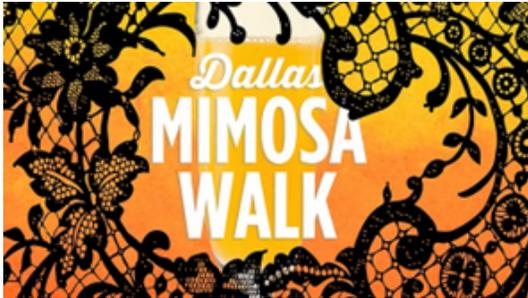

The Dallas Arboretum's nationally renowned Pumpkin Village undergoes its most ambitious transformation yet, with seven architecturally inspired pumpkin houses, each honoring a different Mexican region:

- Casa Calabaza Azul – A pumpkin-covered homage to Frida Kahlo's Casa Azul, celebrating color, creativity and cultural pride (Coyoacán, Mexico City, Mexico).
- Templo de Kukulkán – A stepped pyramid of pumpkins and barrel cactus inspired by Chichén Itzá, honoring Maya ancestral wisdom (Yucatán).
- Casa de Flores Wixárika – Pumpkin blossoms arranged in vivid floral patterns echoing the intricate beadwork of the Huichol people (Sierra Madre Occidental: Jalisco, Durango, Zacatecas, Nayarit).
- Casa Monarca – A vivid tribute to the monarch butterfly migration, with orange pumpkins, butterfly wings and fir branches evoking the Oyamel Forest (Michoacán).
- Casa del Zócalo – A festive gourd-and-squash house with fluttering papel picado & custom piñata, inspired by Mexico City's central square (Mexico City, Mexico).
- Casa Zapoteca – Diamond-patterned walls, marigold garlands and glowing Barro Negro ceramics honor Zapotec heritage (Oaxaca).
- Casa de Saltillo – Red warty pumpkins, Talavera-style ceramics and serape fabrics pay tribute to regional artisanal tilework (Coahuila and Puebla).

Autumn at the Arboretum: ¡Mundo México! presented by Reliant, running through November 2, 2025.

*Concierge ticket: $18
(call to order and tickets can be emailed to you)

6 Things to See at the Dallas Harry Potter Exhibition Oct. 24 @ Pepper Square

Accio excitement, Potterhead's. It's time to dust off your Hogwarts robes, because Harry Potter: The Exhibition is making its way to Dallas.

It's shaping up to be a big year for immersive exhibitions in North Texas, and this limited-run experience is set to transport witches, wizards and muggles alike into the enchanting world of the Boy Who Lived.

After captivating millions of fans worldwide, Harry Potter: The Exhibition is finally debuting in Dallas on October 24 at Pepper Square.

According to a press release for the exhibition, Dallas was chosen for its "family-friendly environment and great appreciation for storytelling and adventure." It's a fitting home for this unparalleled experience that celebrates over two decades' worth of magical moments. From the first-edition book in the Gringotts-inspired vault to your name on the Marauder's Map, this exhibit truly brings the Wizarding World to life. We can't wait to walk through the galleries, cast a couple of spells and soak up the nostalgia of one of fandom's most beloved worlds.

Explore the Iconic Hogwarts Castle Gallery

What's more magical than Hogwarts Castle itself? This gallery is a dream for Potterhead's who've spent countless hours wishing they could roam its hallowed halls. Featuring an immersive multimedia experience with dazzling elements like the Marauder's Map, Dementors and even the Whomping Willow, this exhibit is pure enchantment. Here's the kicker — your name will appear on the Marauder's Map during the experience, inviting you to continue exploring.

- Pick Your House in the Personalized Hogwarts Houses Gallery
- Cast Spells and Brew Potions in Classrooms Worthy of Hermione Granger
- Uncover Magical Creatures in The Forbidden Forest
- Live like the boy who lived (in the cupboard under the stairs)
