HARRY POTTER™: THE EXHIBITION IN DALLAS, TX, EXTENDED INTO APRIL

DALLAS, TX (January 13, 2026) – Due to popular demand, Harry Potter™: The Exhibition at Pepper Square in Dallas has been extended through April 12, 2026. Having already welcomed thousands of visitors, Harry Potter™: The Exhibition continues to delight fans of all ages. With this extended run, even more families and fans can explore iconic moments from the films, get up close to authentic props and original costumes, and enjoy hands-on interactive experiences together.

“We’ve been thrilled with the response in Dallas,” said Tom Zaller, President and CEO of Imagine. “Extending through April 12, 2026, gives even more families, fans, and visitors the opportunity to experience this incredible exhibition together, whether they’re planning a spring break trip, weekend outing or a return visit.”

Harry Potter: The Exhibition captivates guests through powerful storytelling and cutting-edge interactive technology, inviting them to explore beloved moments from the Harry Potter and Fantastic Beasts films, as well as the Tony® Award-winning stage production Harry Potter and the Cursed Child.

With this extension, additional After Hours events will also be offered. Open to guests 18+, admission includes a complimentary beverage - a specialty cocktail, beer, or wine (with proper 21+ ID), mocktail or soda and snack before exploring the exhibition after dark. With January dates already sold out, upcoming After-Hours events are scheduled for February 5 and 19, with future dates to be added.

Harry Potter: The Exhibition is also in partnership with KultureCity®, a nonprofit organization dedicated to creating sensory-inclusive experiences for individuals with sensory processing disorders. Through the partnership, the exhibition has proudly earned KultureCity’s Sensory Inclusive™ certification and offers KultureCity Sensory Bags on loan that are equipped with strobe reduction glasses, noise-cancelling headphones, fidget tools, and other items aimed at reducing sensory overload and encouraging engagement with the exhibition as well as comfort for guests.

The exhibition is located at Pepper Square on the corner of Preston Rd. and Beltline Rd. in North Dallas.

Tickets and more information about the exhibition are available <https://dallas.harrypotterexhibition.com/>

Fans are encouraged to follow Harry Potter: The Exhibition on Facebook and Instagram. #HarryPotterExhibition
