Downtown Dallas Arts & Music Festival

DDAMF 2026, Where Creativity, Culture, and Community Collide!

Come join us in person for the Downtown Dallas Arts & Music Festival!

Every spring, the heart of Downtown Dallas transforms into a celebration of art, sound, and connection. DDAMF brings together rising talent, creative entrepreneurs, and music lovers from across the region for an unforgettable weekend of live performances, visual art showcases, and local business collaborations.

This isn't just another festival — it's a platform. A movement. A spotlight on the voices shaping Dallas' creative future.

The Downtown Dallas Arts & Music Festival is an annual, FREE to attend, family & pet friendly, 3-day outdoor event held in celebration of Dallas Arts Month in April. DDAMF not only celebrates the dynamic cultural diversity representing Dallas-Fort Worth but also serves as a central platform for local artists and musicians to showcase their talents, fostering community engagement and direct interaction with the arts.

Celebrate ART, Music, Culture and Community

Discover local art, enjoy live music... experience live painting, murals, curated art exhibitions & installations, performances, pop-up activations, food trucks... and more, featuring a wide variety of DFW artists, makers, small businesses, and creative brands

34th Spring Wine Trail Grapevine, TX April 11

Toast the new release wines at Grapevine's 34th Annual Spring Wine Trail presented by Park Place Lexus and Land Rover Grapevine. This event showcases incredible works of fine art and new-release wines of the season. Join us for delicious wine tastings and beautiful sculptures along Main Street, complemented by exploring charming art galleries and shops. Artists and sculptures will be in and outside the galleries to talk with visitors and show off their works that are in progress

The day starts with the Blessing of the Vines and Procession that you can take part in at 10:20 a.m. The centuries-old European tradition, performed by a priest to ensure a bountiful harvest, is a time-honored Grapevine favorite and will take place on Peace Plaza at Grapevine Main Station (815 S. Main St.). The first 150 people will get a grapevine to take home.

Then, passport holders will enjoy tastings at Grapevine's winery tasting rooms throughout the day. Passports that are pre-ordered can be picked up at Peace Plaza at Grapevine Main Station and Liberty Park Plaza (215 S. Main St.).

April 2 - EJ Matthews Band EJ's style is Backwoods Funk, Swamp Boogie, Country Blues/Funk, Gumbo, and he never fails to shine as himself playing his own distinctive music which he describes as "A little bit of blues with a touch of country mixed in."

April 9 - Matt Tedder Special Country Two Step Dance Social Texas-born songwriter and guitarist Matt Tedder blends deep roots in the blues with a growing devotion to classic country and dancehall culture.

April 16 - BRUHNICE is a DFW based vocalist and producer blending soulful melody with modern production, crafting tracks that balance raw emotion and polished groove.

Drawing on influences from R&B, electronic, and indie pop, Bruhnice's music is marked by intimate vocals, warm synth textures, and memorable hooks.

April 23 - There I Ruined It – Live is the offshoot band of the popular parody music social media channel There I Ruined It, which has amassed more than 9 million followers. Created by Dallas native Dustin Ballard, the project is known for genre-bending, expectation-shattering rearrangements that "lovingly destroy your favorite songs," earning attention from artists like Ed Sheeran, Snoop Dogg and Weird Al Yankovic.

The live band brings the channel's most notorious creations to life with the help of Ballard and 7 top DFW musicians, blending musicianship and humor into one of the most unique live shows you'll see all year.
