Fort Worth Zoo Baby Elephant named Sam Houston born on April 1, 2026

The Fort Worth Zoo is thrilled to announce the birth of a healthy,

36-inch-tall, 285-pound male Asian elephant calf, born at 5:31 a.m. on April 1, 2026. This bundle of baby boy joy was born to mom, Bluebell, and is her second calf. The calf's father is Romeo, making this calf a full sibling to 3-year-old Travis and half-sibling to 8-month-old Lady Bird and 4-year-old Brazos

The calf was standing within six minutes of birth, nursing within an hour and maneuvering his trunk well almost immediately, all indications of a healthy baby elephant. Bluebell, now 13 years old, was carefully monitored throughout her pregnancy. The newest calf joins a four-generation family of Fort Worth elephants, Fort Worth Zoo-born Bowie now resides at the Oklahoma City Zoo and sired a calf of his own last fall, which established the fourth generation and made our matriarch Rasha one of only a few great grandmother Asian elephants in North America.
