Carrollton Culture Fest Brings Global Flavors to Trinity Mills Esplanade

1450 Sunrise Ave, Carrollton, TX

Saturday, September 26

Time: 5pm - 9pm

The City of Carrollton will showcase the Trinity Mills Station Esplanade as its newest destination for community events when Carrollton Culture Fest takes over the three-acre venue on Saturday, September 26, from 5 to 9 p.m.

The free event, formerly known as World of Foodies, has expanded, to bring sights, sounds, flavors, and traditions from around the world. Explore international food and drinks, live cultural performances, artisan vendors, family activities, and interactive experiences from guests of all ages.

Carrollton Culture Fest is an exciting opportunity to bring the community together in a fun and welcoming environment," Mayor Steve Babick said. "We're proud to host an event that celebrates international flavors, vendors, artisans, and musicians while continuing Carrollton's tradition of being a community families and businesses want to call home."

Guests can sample food and beverages representing countries around the world, including Italy, Korea, Mexico, and more. Culture Fest will also feature Bevvv Blvd, an international drink garden coordinated by Carrollton-based 3 Nations Brewing Co., serving a curated selection of alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages.

Live cultural performances throughout the evening include:

- 5 p.m. Rising Phoenix Lion Dancers
- 5:45 p.m. Grace Hula Dance Company
- 7 p.m. Representa
- 7:45 p.m. Korean American Youth Artists of Texas
- 8:15 p.m. Big Easy Brass Band

Performance times are subject to change.

Beyond the stage, attendees can browse an artisan marketplace featuring globally inspired goods, participate in traditional street games from around the world, and enjoy family-friendly activities, including a children's craft hosted by the Korean American Youth Artists of Texas. A sensory-friendly break area will be available for guests seeking a quieter environment, and a professional photo booth will offer keepsake photos throughout the evening.
